

SOUTHWESTERN ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

Disability Accommodations Request Form

Southwestern Adventist University recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and the ADA Amendment act of 2008, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Southwestern is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities as required by law. Qualifying disabilities can include vision, hearing, or mobility impairment; psychological and medical conditions; and learning disabilities, which substantially limit one or more of a person's major life activities and may necessitate modification to the facilities, programs, or services of the university.

If you believe that you are a qualified individual with a disability and wish to request accommodations to participate in a program or activity offered by Southwestern Adventist University, please complete this form and return it to Disability Services. The information you provide regarding any special needs will be used only in coordination and facilitation of services and accommodations required to make our programs accessible to you.
